Received at the point of origin on the date specified, from the consignee mentioned herein, the property herein described, in apparent good order, except as noted (contents and conditions of contents of package unknown) marked, consigned and destined as indicated below, which the carrier agrees to carry and to deliver to the consignee at the said destination, if on its own authorized route or otherwise to cause to be carried by another carrier on the route to said destination, subject to the rates and classification in effect on the date of shipment.

It is mutually agreed, as to each carrier of all or any of the goods over all or any portion of the route to destination, and as to each party of any time interested in all or any of the goods, that every service to be performed here under shall be subject to all the conditions not prohibited by law, whether printed or written, including conditions set aside by the standard bill of lading, in power at the date of issuing, which are hereby agreed by the consignee and accepted for himself and his assigns.

The Contract for the carriage of the goods listed in the Bill of Lading is governed by regulations in force in the jurisdiction at the time and place of shipment and is subject to the conditions set out in such regulations.
